

All Equal under the Act?

Children's Rights Alliance
for England

What the Equality Act 2010 means for children and young people

A CRAE seminar for all those working with children and young people. Learn, debate and plan what to do next to promote equality ... Speakers include:

- "Superb discrimination lawyer" Karon Monaghan QC from Matrix Chambers will give an overview of the Equality Act 2010 as it applies to children and young people in a variety of settings. She will answer questions and apply her considerable expertise to real-life scenarios of discrimination faced by under 18 year-olds
- 17 year-old Jessica Robinson whose Facebook page inspired Bounce Theatre to create TeenAGE Monologues. Jessica set up the Facebook group Against The Discrimination and Mistreatment of Teenagers 'out of frustration of not being allowed into shops in my school uniform, security guards constantly following me around and the Mosquito in my local area, which was forever bugging me!'
- The Equality and Human Rights Commission's Policy Manager – Education and Skills, David Coulter, will review the protection from unfavourable treatment offered to children and young people in educational settings, and outline the enforcement powers of the Commission

DATE: Friday 24 September 2010

TIME: 2-6pm

VENUE: The Conference Centre, Freshfields Bruckhaus Deringer*,

What future for children and young people's civil rights?

This year's annual children's rights conference will set the agenda for reclaiming and strengthening the civil rights and freedoms of children and young people. With the coalition Government promising to reinstate lost civil liberties, we have invited a variety of commentators – from the worlds of youth activism, politics, psychology, education, law, journalism, play, philosophy and children's services – to create what promises to be a lively, engaging event. Contributors to be confirmed shortly.

DATE: Friday 19 November 2010

TIME: 10-4.30pm

VENUE: Oval Conference Centre, Kennington, London SE11 5SS
